

CISV SF Presents

STEP UP OPEN DAY, July 8th

What is CISV and Step Up?

CISV is a non-profit organization that educates and inspires action for a more just and peaceful world. At a Step Up program, nine delegations of four 14- year-olds collaborate to plan and lead activities.

What is Open Day?

Delegations will share presentations regarding their culture or one of CISV's education themes: Diversity, Human Rights, Conflict Resolution, and Sustainable Development.

Which countries are sending delegations? Norway, Vietnam, Honduras, Costa Rica, Indonesia, Sweden, Iceland, Canada, and the USA.

Where? Letterman Gym, 1152 Gorgas Ave. (between O'Reilly & Gorgas), the Presidio, San Francisco

When? Main program is on Saturday, July 8th from 1:30-3:30 PM. Chapter potluck beforehand from 11:30- 1:30 (which anyone is welcome to attend).

Who? If you are unfamiliar with the organization, this event is a perfect opportunity to immerse yourself in the unique, collaborative, and multi-cultural dynamic of a CISV camp. Open Day also provides an ideal time for past participants and volunteers to reconnect with the organization and witness how it has evolved and grown.

For more information on CISV, please visit <https://sf.cisvusa.org/>

Hope to see you there!